

A number of our grade nine students were recognized with special awards during our closing ceremony. As most people were not in attendance when any given award was presented, we wanted to present the full listing of winners here.

Musician's Award

This award was established to recognize students who have made valuable contributions to school life through participation in the music program. The award is presented annually to music students who demonstrate a high level of musicianship and lead with a positive attitude and a cooperative spirit.

Jeremy Houchane

Homeroom Distinction Awards

These awards are presented to one student from each homeroom every year. Each recipient has been selected by their homeroom teacher as someone who exemplifies the six character traits that the Stonepark learning community has chosen to focus on to promote character education. The six traits are; respect and responsibility, kindness and empathy, work ethic and attitude.

9A Homeroom Award	Molly McKenna
9B Homeroom Award	Andrew Vardy
9C Homeroom Award	Nathan Wohlgemut
9E Homeroom Award	Juliette Brugali
9F Homeroom Award	Emma Kamphuis
9G Homeroom Award	Shea Mejilla
9H Homeroom Award	Summer Ford
9I Homeroom Award	Deirdre Otis

Humanitarian Award

The Stonepark Humanitarian Award is presented annually to a student who has promoted peace, shown courage, and demonstrated good citizenship in a positive manner.

Sebestyen Horvath

City Police Award

The City Police Award is presented to a student who has volunteered support to other students and staff in an effort to make Stonepark a better learning environment.

Paige Barry and Alex Stavert

Tiger Spirit Award

The Tiger Spirit Award is presented to the student who has made an outstanding contribution to school life through involvement and a positive attitude.

Zoey MacKinnon

Angus C. MacLeod Award

Angus MacLeod was the first principal at Stonepark in 1973 and continued in that role until 1987. He always had a special interest in students trying their best and he worked to provide programming to fit their needs. The Angus C. MacLeod award is presented to a student who has experienced significant academic growth through personal initiative and perseverance.

Baraah Ketani

Charlottetown Youth Rotary Award

This award is presented annually to a deserving student who demonstrates commitment and volunteerism to both community and school. The recipient exemplifies honesty, fairness, goodwill and positive citizenship both inside and outside of his/her school community. This student is someone who always helps others, is important to the life of the school, is the kind of person who stays after events to help clean up, and is always polite and cheerful.

Paige Hancock

Jerry Campbell Memorial Global Citizen Award

This is a special recognition award. Jerry Campbell was a long-time educator at Stonepark whose passion for social studies inspired students to understand and appreciate the importance of historical and global issues. The Jerry Campbell Global Citizen Award is given to a student who exemplifies the qualities of a global citizen. The student understands the importance of giving back to the community and their school through leadership, compassion, and volunteerism.

Emma Wheatley

Kevin Campbell Memorial Character Education Award

This award is presented annually to a grade 9 student who exemplifies empathy and kindness, respect and responsibility, strong work ethic, a positive attitude, and athleticism.

Abby Larkin

Stonepark Community Volunteer Award

This award is presented annually to a grade nine student who exemplifies Stonepark's character traits of empathy and kindness, respect and responsibility, work ethic and attitude.

Rosine Niyomukiza

Bob Seaman Memorial Awards

These are Stonepark's most prestigious academic awards. Bob Seaman was a dedicated teacher who consistently demanded high standards in his classroom. This is awarded annually to recognize Stonepark's 'best all-around students'. It gives us great pleasure to present these awards to the six students with the highest aggregate in grade nine - three from the English and three from the French Immersion programs. These students have demonstrated a work ethic second to none, resulting in the highest overall averages in the core grade nine courses.

English Program

Zoey MacKinnon

Zachary Stacey

Emma Wheatley

French Immersion Program

Jeremy Houchane

Karolina Jaeger

Ashlyn Shaw